Brief Summary:

In the memory of the father of Library Science in India Dr. S. R. Ranganathan, Librarian Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm on 12th August 2025 at Sheth Agarchand Kunkulol High School, Barshi. The event was marked by a special Book Exhibition organized by the College of Education, Barshi.

The program was inaugurated by a group of esteemed dignitaries including: Headmistress of the high school Sou. Bele Madam, Teacher Mr. Santosh Khude Sir, Associate Professor Dr. M. V. Mate Sir, and Librarian Dr. S. L. Jadhav, College of Education, Barshi. The inauguration began with the ceremonial flower offering to the portrait of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan, paying tribute to his immense contribution to the field of Library and Information Science.

Programme Highlights:

Mr. Sourabh Gavali, Programme Coordinator, welcomed the guests and introduced the event, emphasizing the importance of the programme.

Mrs. Pragati Borgaonkar Madam highlighted the life and contributions of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan in the field of Library and Information Science through an informative poster presentation, effectively capturing key moments of his legacy and achievements.

Dr. S. L. Jadhav, Librarian, then spoke on the objectives of the programme, encouraging students to explore the world of books and understand their role in shaping one's intellect and personality.

Mr. Santosh Khude Sir delivered an inspiring speech to the students, motivating them to take full advantage of the book exhibition and develop a love for reading.

On this occasion, the College of Education, Barshi generously donated a framed photograph of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan and five selected books to the Sheth Agarchand Kunkulol Highschool, Barshi symbolizing their commitment to promoting a reading culture.

The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Miss Kajal Pawar Madam, who expressed gratitude to all the dignitaries, participants, and supporting staff.

The entire program was efficiently anchored by Ms. Rekha Kadam and Ms. Bhagyashri Ghodake. Students of the College of Education, Barshi, actively contributed to the smooth execution and success of the programme.

The event was conducted under the valuable guidance of Dr. M. V. Mate, whose support and direction ensured the event's success.
