Venue	B.Ed. Classroom
Target group	First Year Students
No. of participants	-

B) Report:

Introduction:

To acquaint the newly admitted students with the library systems, services and facilities, the Library Department organized an orientation programme. The session aimed to create awareness about library resources, rules, and procedures to enable students to make effective use of library services during their academic journey.

Objectives:

- To introduce students to the library collection, facilities, and services.
- To make students aware of membership procedures and borrowing rules.
- To demonstrate the use of the library catalogue and reference services.
- To encourage students to cultivate reading habits and utilize library resources.

Details of the Programme

The Library Orientation Programme was conducted on 04 December 2025 in the B.Ed. Classroom. Dr. S. L. Jadhav served as the resource person for this session. The programme was organized specifically for first year students of B.Ed. The session included an introduction to the library functioning, library timing, library services circulation system, reference materials, journals, magazines, and digital learning resources.

Dr. Jadhav guided students regarding the process of book issue-return, library timings, and proper handling of resources. He also explained the online catalogue system and various e-resources available to support students' academic needs. The orientation programme familiarized the students with: Library rules, regulations, and membership procedures, different types of reading materials available in the library, use of OPAC and the importance of reading etc. Students got clarity on accessing resources independently, which will help them enhance their academic performance. The Library Orientation Programme successfully achieved its objective of developing an understanding of library facilities and services among first-year learners. The programme motivated students to utilize library resources effectively in their academic pursuits.

M-OPAC Orientation

A) Brief Summary

Title of the Programme	M-OPAC Orientation
Organizing Dept.	Library Dept.
Resource Person	Dr. S.L. Jadhav
Date	04/12/2025
Venue	B.Ed. Classroom
Target group	First Year Students
No. of participants	-

B) Detail Report

Introduction:

The Library Department organized an orientation programme on M-OPAC (Mobile – Online Public Access Catalogue) to familiarize the First Year students with the book search facility offered by the college. The session aimed to enhance awareness of digital library access and improve independent use of library resources.

Objectives of the Programme

- To introduce students to the M-OPAC system.
- To demonstrate online searching of books using various access points.
- To make students aware of bibliographic details provided through M-OPAC.
- To promote digital access to library resources among students and encourage effective utilization.

Programme Details

The session was conducted by Dr. S. L. Jadhav, who explained the working features of M-OPAC. Students were shown how to search books using Title, Author, Publisher, Subject, and Keywords. Demonstration on viewing important bibliographic information such as Author details, Publisher, Year of Publishing, Accession Numbers, ISBN, Call Number, and availability of copies was provided. Students were also informed that M-OPAC can be accessed by both registered as well as guest users, thereby enabling open access to library holdings. The programme encouraged independent and effective use of library collection. The orientation programme was beneficial for the First Year students as it introduced them to a digital search platform for accessing institutional library resources. The session helped them understand the operational features of M-OPAC and motivated them to use it regularly for academic needs.
