REPORT

Shri Shivaji Shikshan Prasarak Mandal's College of Education, Barshi organized practice teaching and school internship programmes for B.Ed. trainees in various schools of Barshi city. On this occasion, Teachers' Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm in memory of the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan.

Sou.H N N Shah Kanya Prashala, Barshi

College of Education, Barshi in collaboration with Sou.H N N Shah Girls' School organized the Teachers' Day programme. The function was presided over by the Headmistress, Mrs. Shubhada Joshi, while the chief guest was eminent orator Mr. Khandu Doiphode. Dr. P. A. Patil explained the qualities of students and teachers through five guiding principles. The chief guest highlighted that "although the blackboard is black, it enlightens the future of students without leaving them in darkness." The programme began with floral tributes to the portrait of Dr. Radhakrishnan. The introduction of the chief guest was given by Asmita Shingade, the welcome address by Pratiksha Borgavkar, compering by Sudarshan Tanpure, and the vote of thanks by Sushma Khamkar.

Sheth Agarchand Kunkulol High School, Barshi

The programme here was inaugurated with garlanding of Dr. Radhakrishnan's portrait by Headmaster Mr. D. K. Umbardand. A wall poster prepared by trainee Rekha Kadam was unveiled. The teachers of the school were felicitated with gifts on this occasion. Students Srushti Sagar, Shraddha Chavan, and Shraddha Damre expressed their gratitude towards teachers through speeches, while Rutuja Damre delivered a reflective note. Group guide Dr. M. V. Mate shared his thoughts about Teachers' Day. The programme was anchored and introduced by Rekha Kadam, while the vote of thanks was proposed by Seema Chikhale.

Sadhana Kanya Prashala, Barshi

At this school, the programme was chaired by Headmistress Mrs. Vanita Kale with Prof. Dr. R. A. Furade as the chief guest. The teachers of the school were felicitated. Priyanka Wakalkar presented her reflections, while Dr. Furade delivered an inspirational speech on the role of teachers. In her presidential address, Mrs. Kale elaborated on the responsibilities and contributions of teachers. Aditi Barangule delivered the welcome address, compering was done by Salma Mulani, and the vote of thanks was proposed by Rutuja More.

Shah Dharshi Jeevan Model High School, Barshi

Teachers of the school were honoured with roses and gifts on this occasion. The programme emphasized the message that “Teachers are the true sculptors of society who shape the future of students.” A wall poster prepared by Neha Kabade was unveiled, and a PPT presentation on Teachers’ Day prepared by Momin Afroj was presented. Prof. Dr. M. S. Disle, along with retired teachers Mr. Gore and Mr. Saravade, graced the event. The function was presided over by Headmaster Mr. N. N. Devkate. The welcome address was given by Ajay Kunbhar, reflections were shared by Momin Afroj and Ranjit Bhalerao, compering was done by Sanika Babar, and the vote of thanks was proposed by Neha Kabade.
